

TODAY'S SESSION FAVORS DREYFUS

Major Hartman Resumes Testimony

ONE OF THE STRONGEST CHAMPIONS OF ACCUSED.

Witness Says That a Civil Employee Named Boutonnet Betrayed a Description of the "120 Gun" to German Agents—Labori Directs Questions to Gen. Deloye Who Soon Found Himself Agreeing With the First Witness and Disagreeing With Mercier, Gense and Rogot.

Rennes, Sept. 2.—[Special]—Major Hartman, an expert artilleryman and one of the strongest champions of Capt. Dreyfus, resumed his testimony at the opening of the court-martial today. The witness today explained that there was no strict secret about the "120 gun" or hydraulic brake. He said that in 1890 a civil employee named Boutonnet had betrayed a description of the brake to German agents. A year later a description of it was printed and sold.

M. Labori then began to question General Deloye. He put the questions skillfully, and soon the old general found himself agreeing with Major Hartman in many points and disagreeing with the views of Mercier, Gense and Rogot.

"Could the general believe that the terms employed in the bordereau would allow anyone to suppose that the document had been written by Dreyfus or any artillery officer?" asked Labori.

"No," replied Deloye, and then growing more positive, "never, on my soul and conscience, I can't believe so."

This change on the part of Deloye caused a great sensation.

It was evident that he was uncertain as to the prisoner's guilt.

On Wednesday, Deloye's testimony tended to show that Dreyfus could have been the author of the bordereau.

Testimony favorable to Dreyfus.

Prof. Louis Havet gave important testimony for Dreyfus. He examined the bordereau from a linguistic standpoint and testified to the peculiar use of the words in it. Those indicated, he said, a document written by a foreigner like Esterhazy, instead of a Frenchman like Dreyfus. Errors identical with those in the bordereau were found in letters of Esterhazy's said the witness, while he never found them in the letters of the accused.

At the request of Labori, the letters which passed between Picquart and Gense at the time of the former's discovery, regarding Esterhazy, were read to the court. They showed Gense's uncertainty as to the authorship of the bordereau and how he advised Picquart to cautiously investigate Esterhazy.

Picquart asked Gense if he did not believe Dreyfus was innocent in '96, but Gense refused to answer.

Plot to Ruin Picquart.

Labori's further questioning brought up a plot supposed to have been conducted by Herry and De Clam to ruin Picquart and shield Esterhazy, but Gense answered evasively.

Major Lamothe testified that there were strong reasons for the military chiefs in ascribing a new date to the bordereau in order to incriminate Dreyfus.

Under the alleged first dated bordereau he said he could not have mentioned the maneuvers.

Rogot, Mercier and Deloye denied this.

The court then adjourned until Monday.

Has Paty de Clam Confessed?

Rennes, Sept. 2.—It is stated on the best authority that Col. Du Paty de Clam has made the most sensational revelation, exposing all the crookedness of which he is guilty in obedience to the direct instructions of his chiefs of the general staff. This was revealed to Major Tavernier, the commissioner appointed by Col. Jouaust, president of the court-martial, to take Du Paty de Clam's testimony in Paris, where he lies ill.

Reported Robbery of Bank.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 2.—Word was received here Friday that a bank at Lincoln had been robbed, the thieves blowing open the safe and escaping with a large sum of money. Shots fired at the robbers by officers led to the report that a train had been held up near the city. This was disproved by communication with the railway authorities.

Bedloe's Statement Denied.

HOOF BEATS FROM ROCKTON

Jockey Burke Wants to Race Janesville's Winner.

The Beloit Free Press of last evening says: "The great Derby race at Rockton yesterday afternoon had left many of the boys of the city wiser but poorer. Some of them thought they had a sure thing in placing their money on Flying Jib and in consequence their pockets are very light today. The Janesville thoroughbred is ungainly but he has plenty of speed and was never in danger of losing the race."

"Jockey Burke of St. Louis, who rode Flinger Bros' horse, is said to have an animal which he is anxious to back against all comers. His horse is reputed to be a short distance sprinter and can get unlimited backing for a race at a quarter, half or three-quarters mile contest. Another race would prove interesting and would no doubt attract an immense audience."

MASKED MEN ROB A DANE COUNTY MAN

FREDERICK LOABELL BOUND AND GAGGED.

Exciting Experience of a Rural Mail Carrier—Burglars Secure $48 in Money and Some Jewelry—Alleged Waukesha Wife Murderer Held for Trial—State News.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 2.—Frederick Loabell, rural mail carrier between the villages of Cottage Grove and Hope, in this county, was robbed Thursday night by three masked men. Mr. Loabell lives alone in a small house on the Buck eye road about six miles east of Madison, where the highway is crossed by the Northwestern tracks. He was awakened shortly before midnight by three men who demanded his money. He declared that he had none. After tying and gagging him with strips of sackcloth, they ransacked the house, and after breaking a drawer to pieces found $48, a gold watch and two gold rings. The men threatened to kill him if he did not reveal the whereabouts of his money, but he steadily denied having any. The men abused him and repeatedly declared they would kill him, and several times pointed their revolvers in his face.

Failing to force him to reveal the whereabouts of his money, they then took a bag, which they found in the house, into strips and tied Mr. Loabell's hands and feet. After ransacking the house and finding the articles named, the men left, telling him that if he told what had taken place they would kill him. The men were in the house about half an hour. After they had gone he succeeded in breaking his bonds and ran through the fields to the house of the nearest neighbor, where he told what had occurred. The neighbor was opposed to the two men looking for three in the dark, and nothing was done till this morning, when Mr. Loabell came to Madison and complained to the sheriff. Near the house the tracks of a buggy, which had been turned around in the road, were found, and it is believed these tracks are those of the vehicle in which the robbers went to Loabell's house and in which they left the vicinity.

Waukesha, Wis., Sept. 2.—George Eckert, charged with the murder of his wife, was given a preliminary examination yesterday. ## KRUGER THINKS WAR IS NOW CERTAIN

THE BOERS ARE NOW READY TO FIGHT

President's Followers Are Well Armed—Have Mauser Rifles and Ammunition in Abundance—Special Envoy of Orange Free State Arrives at Pretoria—British Prepare.

London, Sept. 2.—The Pretoria correspondent of the Morning Post says: "President Kruger told a prominent Boer that war was 'practically certain.' Every Boer is now armed with a Mauser and has 100 rounds of ammunition strictly for future use, with forty rounds for practice. I am convinced that the reports of the Boers' not being prepared are only a pretense, and that they will strike a blow when it is least expected."

The Johannesburg correspondent of the Standard says: "It is generally understood that there is the strongest inclination in the veldt to repudiate British suzerainty. A large section of the Boers is strongly opposed to a concession of the franchise on the basis of a five-year residence, and the position is still very grave."

It is reported at Aldershot that the First Royal Dragoons, under Lieut. Col. Burn-Murdoch, is under orders to be in readiness in the event of hostilities in the Transvaal. The regiment, which figured at Waterloo, Balaklava and Sebastopol, has not left England since the Crimean war.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

DESCRIPTIVE OF BELGIUM AND PEOPLE.

BY WILL. W. WATT.

THE WRITER
PAYS A VISIT TO ANTWERP AND ALSO TO BRUSSELS.

Brussels, Belgium, Aug. 15.—After three weeks of well spent time in the city of Paris, I left for Brussels on the morning of Sunday, Aug. 13. A ride of three hours through a beautiful country brought our train to the Belgian capital. The only incident worthy of mention during the ride was a free-for-all fight on the train, in the apartment that adjoined ours in the rear. This apartment was occupied by two English gentlemen and a lady friend. Just as the train was leaving Paris a young Frenchman and his best girl hopped in and seated themselves beside the Britishers. The Frenchman and his girl were both smoking cigarettes which the Englishmen objected on account of their lady escort. Several times they politely requested the couple from "Gay Paree" to defer their pleasure until the train reached Brussels but the French couple only shook their heads. Whether or not this shake of the head indicated that they did not understand or would not grant the request did not bother the younger of the two Britishers, who shot out his right arm landing with a crash on the Frenchman's face. The blow knocked him in the corner of the coach and there he remained ten minutes before he realized the situation. The French woman, who was a handsome girl of some twenty-two summers, was not slow in realizing her position and she immediately threw her lighted cigarette out of the window. She then talked broken English and in a very polite way begged the pardon of those about her, stating that her gentleman friend was slightly under the influence of wine. She made no excuse for herself. By this time the Frenchman regained his feet and during the balance of the trip behaved in a manner that was most becoming. When Brussels was reached the two men shook hands and parted apparently the best of friends.

A drive of ten minutes brought us to the Metropole, which proved to be as modern a hotel as one finds in any of the large cities of the United States. Aside from being the seat of the Belgian government, Brussels calls for more than passing notice. Its population is 500,000.

Architecture is Like America

The architecture of the buildings both in the business and resident sections is more like that in America than are the buildings of Paris. Two large parks are within the city limits, the finest of the two facing the royal palace. The Palace of Justice is a building worthy of special mention for but few buildings of this kind are its equal and it is said to be the most gigantic edifice of the century. Its cost was ten million dollars and it was formally opened in 1883, having been commenced in 1866. I visited the royal palace but as the king was at home I was not allowed to enter the grounds.

Many other fine buildings adorn the city, including the Brussels cathedral, which is an imposing Gothic church.

A street fair is now in progress here and lasts for six weeks. This fair is an annual event and takes place in the center of one of the wide boulevards in the business section occupying a space fifty feet wide and a mile long. This fair is composed of nothing but fakes, which include everything from a merry-go-round to a first-class theatre. Last Sunday it is estimated that fifty thousand people visited this fair and a more good natured and easier pleased lot of people one seldom meets. Every fakir seemed to be doing business and the people seemed more than pleased for what they received in return for their hard earned cash.

The greatest lace factories in the world are located here one of which alone gives employment to two thousand people, the greater portion being women. When I visited this factory I met a lady from Chicago who had just made a purchase of two thousand dollars worth of lace, all of which she carried in a small package. If the American lady fails to elude the custom house officials she will be obliged to pay fifty per cent. duty on her arrival in New York.

Brussels abounds in beautiful monuments. For a city its size, one can not help but notice the scarcity of horses. The reason for this is that dogs are used by the working classes to haul their two wheel carts about. Thus the milk, fruit and bread vendor visits his customers each day with his cart hauled either by one, two or three dogs. Attached to one cart loaded with straw, I counted ten dogs of the St. Bernard breed. In most instances women act as drivers.

Play Cyrano De Bergerac

At the two leading theatres in Brussels, Cyrano De Bergerac was being played to crowded houses. In company with two young men from Milwaukee, I went to a vaudeville performance the second evening of my stay in Brussels, and although we did not understand what was being said, we left the theatre more than satisfied that we had spent a profitable evening. The fourth number on the program was views thrown on canvas, of noted men. Among the number was a picture of Admiral Dewey, and as his familiar likeness blazed forth, the trio from Wisconsin sent forth a series of cheers that aroused the whole house. The Belgians at once realized that we were Americans, and jumped to their feet in all portions of the house, giving cheer after cheer for America and her hero. One gentleman even went so far as to send one of the waitresses to our seats with three steins of beer.

Although intoxicating drinks are served throughout the cities of Belgium at all hours of the day and night, one seldom sees an intoxicated person on the streets. At the restaurants it is a common sight to see father and mother enter, accompanied by their children, each of which has his or her glass of beer. I have seen boys and girls here, not over six years of age, enter a restaurant and partake of two large size glasses of beer.

Bear in this country is cheap, and sells for two cents a glass or five cents a bottle. No hotel landlord in all Belgium expects you to take your meals because you have a room at his hotel, unless you so desire. On entering the dining room of your hotel, you are met by the head waiter, who asks you the number of your room, and to this number he charges your meals as ordered. Brussels restaurants are very numerous, and generally good, and their charges are much more reasonable than the cafes of Paris. Cab hire is reasonable, and for twenty cents you can engage your driver for a half hour. On leaving your cab you are supposed to give the driver his side fee, which in American money amounts to five cents. Horse cars travel the main streets of Brussels, and you pay for the distance traversed. One cent extra is charged when you take a rear seat, for that is supposed to be first class. Electric cars are also to be found in many parts of the city.

Battle Field of Waterloo

Thirty-five miles from Brussels is located the historic battle field of Waterloo. A coach leaves the city each day or you may go by train either first, second or third class.

All Belgian railroads are operated by the government. The engines and coaches are small compared to those of America, but fully as fast, making in most cases a rate of fifty miles an hour. Whether you travel first or third class, you are on the same train, the difference being in the upholstery of the apartment. In traveling third class one saves nearly a half. Second class is most desirable and is about a third cheaper than first class. A majority of the traveling public go second class and are obliged to make a grand rush for seats when the train arrives. In the third class is always found the poorest classes.

A ride of fifty minutes from Brussels takes you to Antwerp, the second largest city in Belgium. Antwerp is a most interesting town and claims a population of 300,000. Its artistic wealth, consisting of paintings, sculptures, monuments and public edifices, is immense. The town is built in a semi-circle on the right shore of the Scheldt river and is a most important port for all western Europe. The sight of the quays and docks and the numerous vessels anchored alongside of the former, or through-out the latter, is one not easily forgotten. To enumerate all the edifices, monuments, curiosities and objects worthy of interest that Antwerp contains, is impossible. Therefore I can only briefly mention the principal ones.

Cathedral of Notre Dame

The magnificent cathedral of Notre Dame, celebrated throughout the entire world, is here located, and is one of the largest and finest specimens of Gothic architecture in existence.

On the second day of our visit to Antwerp special services were being held in this cathedral in honor of one of Belgium's holidays. Three thousand people attended this service and many thousand failed to gain admittance for the lack of room. The interior is grand and imposing in its simplicity. The tower is about 410 feet high and from the floor to the top by Rubens adorns the interior. The ground plan of this fine cathedral forms a cross 584 feet long. It has six aisles and a nave 150 feet high; there are 125 pillars. The numerous chapels are all decorated most artistically and are ornamented by a large number of fine paintings. Several grand churches, each of special interest, are located in Antwerp. Public gardens, beautiful boulevards, fine theatres and places of amusement are to be found here and the visitor cannot help being impressed with the place.

The docks here were created by Napoleon I and are large enough to hold two thousand ships. Their improvement of late years has been more rapid than any other docks in Europe. The great quay and docks have cost twenty million dollars and are two miles long and have twenty-eight feet of water.

This month Antwerp is holding a celebration in honor of the three hundredth anniversary of the birth of Van Dyke, the famous painter. From one end of the city to the other, gay colored banners are stretched, while thousands of Belgian flags hang from the windows.

Several American firms doing business here have made it a point to display the stars and stripes; and in this far distant land the sight of Old Glory is a most welcome one. At night the city is illuminated.

In the Antwerp museum a collection of two hundred of Van Dyke's most famous pictures are displayed. On the afternoon of Aug. 16, a grand parade was held, consisting of various floats, representing events in the Roman days. Two thousand local cyclists on wheel took part.

Throughout Belgium American made bicycles are common and in this city I have met several wheelmen with Cleveland, Sterling and Columbia wheels.

The population of Antwerp is almost exclusively Flemish.

PLAN "A LOOK AHEAD SOCIAL"

To Be Given By Members of Court Street M. E. Church.

Rev. Walter A. Hall, pastor of Court Street church, now back from his vacation, says that after the rest on the part of pastor, choir and people, he trusts the church work will be taken up with new zest. He is planning "A Look Ahead" social, similar to the one held last year in which every department of church work will be represented. He is also desirous of holding one week from Sunday morning, A Harvest Home and Old People's service. The Epworth League will decorate the church on that occasion. Mr. Hall will fill his own pulpit tomorrow morning. In the evening a union of the First and Court Street churches will be held in Court Street M. E. church, the Rev. W. W. Woodside preaching.

It is expected that the winner will take the entire purse, the loser getting only his training expenses. Corbett is to be taken on by the winner within four weeks of the fight, according to the agreement, and Fitzsimmons within eight weeks if he

RHEINHOLT SCHOTT NOW THE CHAMPION

GOOD WRESTLING MATCH AT MYERS GRAND.

Wisconsin Man Captures the Middle Weight Championship of the Northwest—Wins From Wm. Allen of Duluth—Two Falls Out of Three—Several Side Attractions

Lovers of athletics were afforded an opportunity of witnessing the genuine article in the wrestling match at Myers Grand Opera House last evening, between Rheinholt Schott of Watertown, and William Allen of Duluth, Minnesota, for $250 a side.

The Watertown man can now lay just claim to the honors of being the middle-weight champion of the northwest, having defeated the Duluth man, winning two falls out of three.

The men were quite well matched and it was an even contest and both had met the best men of their class and had never been defeated by anyone of their weight, therefore a good contest was expected and none were disappointed.

The match was catch-as-catch-can style, best two out of three. Police Gazette rules governing. The struggle hold was barred. Two points down.

It was a little after 9 o'clock when Referee Appleby introduced the contestants. Schott gave his weight stripped as 151 pounds and Allen 158. They were both in excellent condition and had trained with a determination of winning. Allen was possibly the most confident. Both men were bare above the waist. Schott wore a pair of red tights and Allen wore black. Both of the contestants displayed very clever work and their good points received liberal applause.

Schott Wins First Fall

After a struggle of eleven minutes, Schott succeeded in putting Allen squarely on his back and was given the first fall. The second bout lasted fifteen minutes and was an interesting one, taken by the Duluth man, who received a thunder of applause. The third and deciding bout only lasted ten minutes and was taken by Schott, being the shortest of the three and naturally the most interesting.

After the match had been finished, Allen stepped up to the footlights and challenged Schott to another match, stating to the audience that he would wrestle a mixed match. He said that he was far better in other styles of wrestling. He also said that he would wrestle the winner of last night's match collar and elbow, cornish and catch-as-catch-can, one bout each.

Sheriff W. H. Appleby acted as referee and rendered his decisions in a manner that was satisfactory to not only the audience, but to the contestants as well.

Before the wrestling match was called, there were preliminaries. Three round boxing matches took place, and were in charge of John Manning. The first match was between James Mager and Louis Belden, a couple of boys. Both did some clever work, and furnished much amusement.

Mr. Manning announced that "The unknown" who was billed to meet Mr. Mason had made himself scarce, but in

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

51 B. C.—The naval battle of Actium decided the fate of the Roman world; Antony and Cleopatra were defeated by Octavius.
1666—The great fire in London began in the shop of a baker named Farriner, near the Tower; it continued five days, destroying 13,000 houses, besides churches, etc., or five-sixths of the city.
1726—John Howard, philanthropist and prison reformer, was born at Hackney; died in Russia 1790.
1788—Lady Mary Hervey, famous for beauty, wit and goodness, in the court of George III, died.
1815—Battle of Dresden and mortal wounding of General Jean Victor Moreau.
1870—Surrender of the emperor's army at Sedan; Napoleon delivered his sword to King William and surrendered 4,000 officers, 14,000 wounded and 82,000 fugitives.
1894—Four Michigan towns destroyed by forest fires; over 450 lives lost and many people injured.
1898—British and Egyptian troops under General Sir Henry Kitchener annihilated the army of dervishes at Omdurman, near Khartoum; 11,000 dervishes killed, 16,000 wounded.

HALSTEAD WAS RIGHT

A press dispatch from Cincinnati, O., tells how an audience attacked Morat Halstead at that city during his lecture before a club, on "The Philippines." The dispatch says:

"After the lecture, according to the rules of club, Mr. Halstead was pined with questions. One of the questioners, with decided sympathy with Aguinaldo, after his question had been answered, added the remark: 'I hope Otis will be kept in and will keep on blundering until he and the whole army are driven into the sea or captured.'"

Mr. Halstead said: "A man with those sentiments is a traitor to his country." Several men jumped up and remarked: "Two-thirds of this audience thinks that way."

Mr. Halstead replied: "Whoever thinks that way is a traitor."

Then there was a rush down the hall with raised fists toward Mr. Halstead, a great number of men stopped in between Mr. Halstead and those who were rushing at him. There was a great noise and uproar which disclosed the fact that the audience was composed of men on both sides of the question. Mr. Halstead was quietly conducted out of the church by a side door and taken home. No blows were struck, but chairs and seats were upset and there were loud threats and great uproariousness.

Has it come to pass that citizens of the great state of Ohio shall rise up to applaud the sentiment:

"I hope that Otis will be kept in and will keep on blundering until he and the whole army are driven into the sea or captured."

Do the citizens of Ohio want to see an American army martyred under the American flag, "swept into the sea or captured" by a hostile foe? Is a man who wants to see his countrymen slain, or captured and tortured by semi-civilized tribes, a patriot?

Morat Halstead used the right name. Such men are traitors, and should be treated as such. A man may be an anti-expansionist without being a traitor, or as the question of expansion or anti-expansion does not confront us, and will not until we put down the insurrection, restore law and order, and find out what we have to expand upon. In the meantime, our army is contending with a rebellious foe, and the man who wants to see the brave boys in blue killed or captured is as much a rebel at heart as the man who shoots American soldiers from ambush.

One of the witnesses at the Dreyfus trial said that he could not explain his course. "I was only a kind of phonograph," he said; "and I repeated without commentary." This being the case, the next announcement will doubtless be that Thomas A. Edison wrote the bordereau.

Argentina is coming to the front. The announcement that Dan Coughlin is now a resident of that country is closely followed by the statement that the gold standard is to be adopted at once.

A Chicago saloon keeper has received notice from Hungary that he has inherited the title of count. Up to this time he was no count, but perhaps it is all right now.

General King has written a new story, the title being "Found in The Philippines." The hero, it is needless to state, is not an "anti-imperialist."

The San Domingo revolution is a thing of the past. Jimenez is now president, and peace will rule until the next revolution begins.

The International Law Association, at the Buffalo meeting, approved the plans made at The Hague Peace conference.

Altgeld says he is "still in it." In what? The soup, or the swim?

There is nothing foamy about Senator Beveridge.

America Importing Potatoes.
A man whose attention had been attracted to several large trucks piled high with what were labeled "selected Scotch potatoes," was curious enough to investigate this seeming variance with the idea that America supplies the world with food products. He found that Scotch potatoes had been known in New York for fifteen years. None had been imported, however, for five years until this season, when the scarcity of potatoes here and the plentifulness of the Scotch crop made importations profitable. One ship alone brought 150,000 sacks. Potatoes are regularly imported from Germany also.

Pathos Mingles with Love.
A love story comes from romantic Rumania. It all happened in the little village of Vacaresti de Rastvaca, near Bucharest. A young peasant, Damian Valda, loved a beautiful young person, whose parents, at least, did not "reciprocate his affection."
Valda denied the house, but he remembered that the little god laughs at bolts and bars, and took comfort. He procured a covered wagon and a dozen friends, drove up one night and "rushed" the house. The girl, already muffled, was brought out, and Damian industriously plying the whip, away they tore to his home.
He lifted down his precious burden and gently drew the veil from her face. The features were those of the girl's mother.

CAPT. ROGERS' NAME IS ON THE LIST

BELOIT MAN RECOMMENDED FOR A COMMISSION.

Senators Spooner and Quarles Decide on His Endorsement As the Commander of a Company—War Department Will Act At Once—The Other Men Favored.

Captain Tom Rogers of Beloit, has been recommended by Senators Spooner and Quarles for a commission as captain of the volunteer army, and the recommendation has been forwarded to the war department. The list is as follows:

TO BE MAJOR.
THEODORE K. BIRKHAUSER of Milwaukee.
TO BE CAPTAINS.
E. W. HOWLAND of Green Bay, late captain of Co. L, Fourth Wisconsin.
THOMAS J. ROGERS of Beloit, late captain of
Co. E, First Wisconsin.
ANDREW J. KINNEY of Hudson, late captain of Co. B, Third Wisconsin.

TO BE FIRST LIEUTENANTS.
FRED P. COOK of Milwaukee, late first lieutenant of Co. M, First Wisconsin.
WALTER L. MARDEY of Oshkosh, late captain of
Co. B, Second Wisconsin.
ARTHUR S. TIBBETS of Beaver Dam, late captain of
Co. B, Second Wisconsin.

TO BE SECOND LIEUTENANTS.
R. D. BLANCHARD of Rosebush, late second lieutenant of Co. B, Second Wisconsin.
GEORGE W. RICHMAN of Racine, late captain of
Co. E, First Wisconsin.
JOHN H. BAKER of Madison, late second lieutenant of Co. G, First Wisconsin.
JOHN B. SHUMAN of La Crosse, late of Co.
Third Wisconsin.

Janesville people who know Captain Rogers will rejoice at his good fortune rather than his military talents have been recognized, as he is an excellent soldier. He commanded Co. E, First regiment, at Jacksonville, and after the army was mustered out was detailed commissary of the Division hospital, that place serving until the troops left Jacksonville.

The appointments will be made at once, as the Wisconsin list has been undoubtedly delayed, and the war department is anxious to get matters straightened out as soon as possible.

CONCERT WAS A GREAT TREAT

at the University Students at the First M. E. Church.

The concert given by six of the University students at the First
M. E. church last evening was a rare treat and those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance were well paid for the evening spent. The concert was a complimentary one, and it is edible to state that the house was packed to the doors. Janesville can put out a larger crowd to witness a show than any other city of its size in the northwest.

The program which was rendered by the talented colored men was excellent and every member of the sextette proved himself a finished artist. D. W. Jackson has a soprano voice that is simply phenomenal, and his numbers were received with great applause. J. C. Dickson and W. E. Gray, the tenors, were also fine. The program included solos, duets and trios, as well as several well-chosen selections by the whole sextette.

At the conclusion of the concert, a section was taken up and the amount collected was very small, considering the excellent quality of the entertainment.
The men are accompanied by C.
Dunton, D. D., the president of the colored institution of learning and trip is being made for the purpose of raising funds for building an additional building to the university. The object is a worthy one and it is to be regretted that such a paltry sum was realized at the concert of last night.

MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED

at the Western Tent Brigade Hold Gospel Services This Evening.

The attendance at the Northwestern Tent Brigade encampment near the Y.
M. C. A. building, has been very good the opening meetings. A gospel service will be held tonight, a short air service and the regular service camp salvation. A Christian's praise service will be held tomorrow afternoon, by Captain Hill, and the regular service tomorrow night will be the first of the meetings tomorrow. Next Friday night the Rev. E. J. Hull of First Methodist church of Harvard, will preach. The public is cordially invited to these services. Good music will be rendered.

L GOES UP FIFTY CENTS

Price of Only Twenty-Five Cents a Ton
Was Expected.

Coal dealers have been notified of an advance from $6.25 to $6.75 a ton, and likely that another advance will be before the autumn is far advanced.
Coal advanced 25 cents a ton. Reported from the east on Thursday coal would go up 25 cents, but the fact that the price went up 50 cents was what of a surprise.

An increase in anthracite, it is said, is due to a famine. Reports have it that there are not enough cars in the districts to handle as much coal needed. The advance in the soft coals is due mainly to the lack of vessel space for that trade.

Clean-Up Sale Night

A regular weekly clean-up sale of fruit and vegetables, takes place at 8 o'clock tonight. We received large quantities of fruit, and in all probability there will be a generous supply for bargain seekers. Melons and fruit will go at slaughter prices. A small amount of money will be put Sunday's meals along these at our clean-up sale. Dedrick morrow afternoon, and will return home

very popular.

JANESVILLE dealers are paying half a cent a gallon more for kerosene than they were a week ago. Oil operators think the Standard has been forced to make the current advance by the peculiar relations between oil operations and the iron market. The cost of tubing and casing used in drilling oil wells has been more than doubled and the opening of new fields has been correspondingly restricted.

SEYMOUR C. KING, a trick bicycle rider, arrived in the city yesterday. He claimed to be riding from New York to San Francisco for Bright's Chemical Company of Little Falls, New York. He gave a clever exhibition of trick riding in front of the Hotel Myers last evening. He was dressed as a tramp to attract attention. Later he appeared in trick riding at the Myers Grand Opera House.

Queer Automobile Accident.
Dr. Playfair, a London physician, was hurt in a queer automobile accident recently. He was going up a hill when something gave way and the carriage began to roll backward down the slope.
The driver applied the power brake to the rear wheels, forgetting that he was going backward, with the result that the carriage stood upon end and tipped backward, bruising Dr. Playfair as it fell upon him.

LOCATE JANESVILLE POSTOFFICE SITE

SELECT JEFFRIS LOT ON SOUTH
FRANKLIN STREET.

Decided Yesterday at the Treasury Department in Washington—People Agree to Pay Part of the Purchase
Price—Officials Believe the People Will Be Satisfied.

The question of a location for Janes-ville's federal building has been decided by the treasury department at Washington. The following from the Milwaukee Sentinel's correspondent at the seat of the national government appeared in this morning's issue of that journal:

The location of the proposed public building at Janesville was decided today at the Treasury department and the structure will be built on the site offered by D. K. Jeffris at South Franklin and Dodge street. This is a west side location within a block of the river and near the site of the present postoffice.

The officials believe that, considering the fact that the government obtains the lot for $7,500, the amount of $5,000 having been raised by the people of Janesville in order to complete the purchase within the figures the government officials were willing to pay, the people of Janesville will be satisfied.

The lot has the additional advantage of an alley on the side and rear, which the government requires in all cases and which would require an additional expenditure on some of the locations offered. While not on the principal business street, the officials believe the location is near enough to the business center to meet the demands of the people.

JANESVILLE VETS DEPART FOR EAST

TO ATTEND NATIONAL EN-CAMPMENT OF G. A. R.

Left This Morning at 7:35 O'clock in a Special Car Over the C. & N. W.
Road For Philadelphia—Local Delegation Consists of Thirteen—Stop at Niagara Falls.

The Janesville delegation to the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Philadelphia, left in a special car over the C. & N. W. road at 7:35 o'clock this morning. There car was attached to the accommodation, and upon reaching Chicago was added to the Grand Army headquarters train, which will run through special, reaching Niagara Falls tomorrow evening.

There a stop of a few hours will be made for the purpose of viewing the falls, after which the party will continue the trip to the Quaker City. Those who desire will have the privilege of stopping longer at Niagara Falls, but the entire party will probably go right through to Philadelphia and spend the time in viewing the many interesting sights in that city. Several excursions will be run from there to Washington,
New York and other places of interest, and a number of the party will take advantage of the low rates and visit them before returning. The returning time can be extended as late as September 30th and a few will no doubt take nearly the limit.

The local party was composed of Samuel C. Cobb and daughter, Miss Gertrude Cobb; Mrs. John Collins, Mrs.
Angie Sanborn, Mrs. E. Billings, F. B.
Childs, Carl Childs, F. S. Winslow, G.

Wingzler, Charles Kilmer and A. C.
Munger.

WORK OF BURGLARS GOES MERRILY ON

FORCE AN ENTRANCE TO ALD.
KOTHMAN'S HOME.

Base of Operations Changed to the West Side.—Clothes Removed to the Yard and Pockets Rifled of Small Change—Officer Beneke Responds
With Usual Promptness.

And the work of the burglar goes merrily on. Last night the base of operations was changed from the east to the west side of the river, and the residence of Alderman Fred H. Kothman, at No. 157 Lincoln street was entered.
Mr. Kothman's clothes were removed to the yard by the unknown thief and the pockets rifled of the small amount of change they contained.

Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning,
Mrs. Kothman was awakened by a noise in the house, and her thoughts flew at once to burglars. She aroused her husband who got up, and upon investigation found unmistakable evidence that thieves had called upon him. A flower stand that had stood before one of the windows of the sitting room had been moved to one side and the screen, which was propped up, showed clearly where the marauder had entered. Mr.
Kothman started to dress himself, but found that his clothing was not in the accustomed place, and upon looking out of the window through which the burglar had evidently entered and departed, he saw them lying on the lawn, with the pockets turned inside out. Luckily, the only article of value in them was a pocketbook containing some small change, and that was all that the thief secured.

A message was at once sent up town to Officer Fred W. Beneke, who responded with his usual promptness. Upon his arrival at the house he made a careful search of the vicinity, but could find no traces of the burglar, although he kept up the hunt for some time.

Do Not Be Deceived
Woodard & Stone's Cameo Butter
Crackers are being imitated, but as yet unequaled. Dealers have been imposed upon by worthless goods being represented to take their place. Insist upon your grocer giving you crackers with the imprint of Cameo Butter on the package. They are always fresh and crisp.

A SUGGESTION IN NAVIGATION

Captain Should Not Lay Out His Vessel's Course Alone.

All theories about magnetic attraction and unknown currents will have to be dismissed, so far as the Paris Académie is concerned, says the Philadelphia Press. It demonstrates one weak feature in the method now followed by determining the course of a vessel at sea. The captain of a vessel determines the course without consultation with the other navigating officers. If he makes a mistake, there is no check on him, unless the man on the bridge discovers land or a light that causes a change. The suggestion made some time ago, that more than one officer should take part in laying the course of a vessel, seems to be a wise one. The captain could, for that matter, proceed as he does now, but if another officer were required to make a separate calculation and give it to the captain, a mistake such as that made by Capt. Watkins might easily be discovered in time to avert disaster. Age and experience do not guarantee freedom from error. Accidents more often happen to the experienced captains than to the inexperienced ones. Perhaps in a long course of years they are apt slightly to relax their vigilance, and then comes the danger. The captains of all the steamship lines lay out the course of their vessels without check of any kind from other officers. There would appear to be need of a change in that respect.

The Dum Dum Bullet.

The Dum Dum bullet, the use of which in warfare has been discussed at the peace conference, takes its name from the Indian arsenal where it was devised. It is a small calibre bullet, and its peculiarity is that part of the nickel or copper covering is removed, so that when the bullet strikes a man the impact spreads the soft lead, inflicting a severe, shattering wound. The use of the bullet is defended on the ground that it is necessary to stop the advance of savage assailants, and that while it is more fatal than other bullets to those who are hit by it, it may even diminish the total loss of life by keeping hostile forces from coming to close quarters.

GREAT THOUGHTS.

After God, it is to our country that we owe the service of our devotion.—L'Hopital.

The most revolting state of society is one in which superiority is dependent upon wealth.—Cicero.

The world always deserves that one should concern one's self with it, since it is the work of God.—Beecher.

There comes a day when truths that have been scorned announce themselves by thunderclaps.—Augier.

Political indifference is a serious error because it leaves the field open to the unworthy and the incapable.—Louis Proal.

NOTICED THIS BEFORE

You Probably Have and May Have Spoken About It.

The reader of this newspaper it he takes the time and trouble to look carefully through its columns, will probably find half a dozen statements tacked on to the foot of reading notices about proprietary articles. Note this fact. In each and every instance as far as Janesville is concerned, as far as the reader's knowledge of the party is concerned he might just as well live in the moon. Make another note of this. The only remedy on the market which gives testimony at home, local proof in every town and city in the Union, to back up its claims, is Doan's Kidney Pills. They all try it but they cannot do it. Why they are unable to do it can safely be left with the reader to draw his own conclusions. Here is Janesville proof for Janesville readers. Mr. Geo. Pratt, of 261 S. Main St., salesman at Brown Bros. Shoe store, says: "I feel that I can guarantee Doan's Kidney Pills for curing kidney complaint. I was subject to it for several years, had a doctor treat me for quite awhile, and as long as I took the medicine I was helped, but as soon as I quit the trouble returned. I took other remedies, but without being benefited. Finally learning about Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at the People's Drug Co's. store and took them. They cured me. My symptoms were mostly backache, the kidney secretions contained sediment and were too frequent in action. You are welcome to use my name as one who recommends Doan's Kidney Pills, and I shall be glad to speak a good word for them at all times."

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Prospect for the Close of the Year Is Hopeful.

HEAVY BUSINESS LOOKED FOR.

Dun & Co. Report an Extraordinary Demand, Notwithstanding Prevailing High Prices—Increased Efforts Being Made to Meet Wants—The Failures.

New York, Sept. 2.—Bradstreet's says:

"With an exceptionally heavy business already booked for the latter portion of the year, the mercantile community faces the trade situation with confidence, testified to by very generally firm prices and with quotations in a number of lines showing further marked advances. The most conspicuous exception to this is found in cereals, which are weak and declining. Wheat (including flour) shipments for the week aggregate 3,613,413 bushels, against 3,313,825 bushels last week. Corn exports for the week aggregate 4,157,868 bushels, against 4,590,097 bushels last week."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"The astonishing feature is the magnitude of demand, notwithstanding prices which would ordinarily check it. In products directly consumed by individuals the larger employment and better wages of the working force give explanation. Efforts to meet the demand call for more stores, manufacturing works and machinery and facilities for transportation, as if every man's wages were in part diverted to build up the nation's machinery of manufacturing and distribution. The occasion promises quick profits, the building is largely for the future, and it goes on in spite of unusual prices. Sales of wool have been moderate, 6,328,700 pounds for the week, and for five weeks 42,005,890 pounds, of which 35,459,290 pounds were domestic. Failures for the week have been 141 in the United States, against 171 last year, and 25 in Canada, against 22 last year."

Yaguels Attack Mexican City.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 2.—A dispatch from Chihuahua, Mexico, says the military authorities there have received news of an attack on the municipality of Guadalupe by a force of about 200 Yaqui Indians. A small body of soldiers was stationed at the town to protect its inhabitants, and the engagement between them and the Yaguels was fierce and lasted for several hours. The Indians finally withdrew, carrying off their dead and wounded. Two soldiers were killed and about five wounded. Several houses were burned by the Indians.

Goes to Law Against a Trust.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 2.—A suit has been filed in the district court by Attorney-General Smythe, the petition of which declares the existence of a school-furniture trust, and asks that the unlawful combination be prohibited from doing business in Douglas county or in the state of Nebraska. The defendants in the suit are twenty-two school-furniture companies, nearly all located in Ohio and Michigan, which the attorney-general says have formed a combination under the title of the American School Furniture company.

With Military Honors.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 2.—Col. Alexander Leroy Hawkins, late commander of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers, who died on shipboard while returning from the Philippines, was buried with military honors at Washington, Pa., Friday. Fully 20,000 persons were present. The services were conducted by Chaplain Joseph L. Hunter of the colonel's regiment.

Riot in Cleveland Streets.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Another riot broke out at 9:30 o'clock Friday night in Central avenue near Giddings avenue. A small torpedo exploded under the wheels of a Central avenue car and a large crowd of foreign workmen assembled. They soon began to throw stones at the passing cars. The police made ten arrests.

Safe at Arlington Robbed.

Arlington, Ill., Sept. 2.—The large mercantile house of Larkin & Black was entered by burglars Friday morning, the safe blown open and much money taken. The robbers secured $2,000 in money, besides jewelry, etc. They escaped before the alarm could be given. The postoffice deposit was among the cash secured.

Monongahela Is Overdue.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 2.—Naval officers still treat with apparent indifference the fact that the old wooden training ship Monongahela is overdue. Nevertheless the government tug Standish is awaiting orders to go to her assistance just as soon as some word of the missing vessel is received.

Public Debt $4,281,116 Lower.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business Thursday the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,157,806,555, a decrease, as compared with last month, of $4,281,116.

Read Now a New York Lawyer.

The Secret of a Girl's Beauty

Hon. J. H. FLETCHER, formerly Governor of South Dakota, but now a resident of Salem, Ore., says: "For over two years my daughter had been declining from a strong, healthy, rosy-cheeked girl to a pale, weak and helpless invalid. She was afflicted with terrible headaches, and gradually grew weaker, and more languid, apparently without cause. I tried several doctors, but all without avail. Finally, to please a friend, I bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and to our surprise, before it was used up her headaches ceased, the color began to return to her cheeks and lips and her strength began to assert itself. I bought five boxes more, and by the time she had finished them she was completely restored, and to-day she is a robust, healthy girl instead of a pale, tired and sickly one."

—From the Oregon Independent, Salem, Ore.

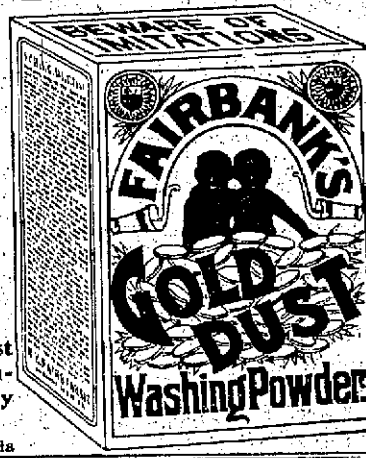

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, scintillation, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

MOBILE FEARS YELLOW FEVER

Strict Quarantine Established Against New Orleans.

ONE DEATH FROM THE DISEASE

Board of Health at Indianapolis Reports of a Death from the Plague in Knox County—Precautions Against Its Spread.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 2.—News was received here Friday night that three cases of yellow fever and one death had occurred in New Orleans. The board of health was immediately called together, and a strict quarantine was declared against the infected cities.

Various reports have been received that the dreaded disease has spread over New Orleans. The midnight train that arrived here from New Orleans was stopped on the outside of the city, and no one from that city was allowed to disembark.

The train was sent through Mobile, and will not be allowed to stop in the state of Alabama. The train crew was ordered to a detention camp. The news of the fever caused much excitement in Mobile, and will cause many residents to leave until after the scare is over.

Death Was from Yellow Fever.
New Orleans, Sept. 2.—An autopsy held on the body of young F. Adolph, who died here Thursday, showed the death to be due to yellow fever. The case was reported to the Louisiana board of health as yellow fever two days ago by the experts, but Dr. Murray of the United States marine hospital service does not think it was that disease.

Mobile is quarantined against New Orleans. There is another case, which is regarded as very suspicious, and it is almost certain that the physicians will diagnose it as yellow fever.

Yellow Fever in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2.—The state board of health received a report of a death from yellow fever from the health officials of Knox county Friday. The report did not give the name of the man. He recently arrived from Cuba, and was sick when he reached New York, but he was passed at quarantine. Immediately on his arrival at Sanborn his condition became serious. He developed all the symptoms of yellow fever. Dr. Keffinger, the attending physician, diagnosed the case as yellow fever. He called in all the other physicians in the town and they agreed with him. The man died Friday morning and was immediately buried. The house has been fumigated and all those who came into contact with the sufferer have been ordered into quarantine for five days. The action of the local health authorities has been approved by the state board. Secretary Hurty says the conditions are favorable for a spread of yellow fever, but he believes the precautions taken by the local health authorities are sufficient to check the disease.

Disease Is Spreading.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 2.—State Health Officer W. F. Blunt was notified Friday by the United States marine hospital service surgeons in Mexico that yellow fever had spread to a number of points on the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. The epidemic is severe at San Geronimo, Juchitlan, Chimalapa and other towns of that section. The disease has also made its appearance at Jalapa in the state of Vera Cruz.

Situation at Key West.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 2.—The state board of health Friday received word from Key West that there were five cases considered to be yellow fever and nine more that were suspicious. The fever germs, it is said, were brought from Havana. The people at Key West are trying to get to the mainland. The troops will be removed at once and sent to some northern point.

To Fight Against Vaccination.

La Porte, Ind., Sept. 2.—The state compulsory educational law will be tested in La Porte county, where a congregation of Christian scientists will resist the order of vaccination of school children, issued by the state board of health. The threatened resistance is attracting attention and Christian scientists throughout the United States will be appealed to for assistance to fight the law in the courts.

Murder Charge Not Sustained.

Peru, Ind., Sept. 2.—Mrs. Edith Quick and Henry Quick, charged with murdering William Quick, were discharged Friday at the preliminary hearing. Justice Fulwiler considered the state's evidence insufficient. The grand jury may take the matter up.

Yates a Candidate for Governor.

Jacksonville, Ill., Sept. 2.—Richard Yates of this city is an avowed candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination next year. His candidacy was formally announced Friday over his own signature in the Jacksonville Journal.

Six Hundred Lives Are Lost.

Yokohama, Sept. 2.—Six hundred lives have been lost by the flooding of a copper mine at Besshi Ithoku.

Mormons Cause a Tragedy.

Pine Bluff, Tenn., Sept. 2.—The intensely bitter feeling against Mormons who have been proselyting in this district reached a climax on Wednesday night, when Miss May Harden was shot and killed from ambush. Her slayer, a prominent young farmer named Baston Winslow, committed suicide at his doorstep just as the bloodhounds led a posse to his home. He confessed his crime. The Mormons of Stewart county have been repeatedly warned to cease holding meetings and to leave the district under penalty of death.

New Glass Trust Planned.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 2.—Notwithstanding the fact that the combination of the glass tableware companies into the National Glass company, there is probability of a new combine being formed. At a meeting Friday it was decided to reduce the proposed capitalization from $7,000,000 to $3,000,000 and form an organization under the original name without the co-operation of the United States Glass company, the stumbling block in the way of the first plan.

Laurier Not Going Abroad.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian prime minister, who was in Montreal Friday, stated that owing to pressure of engagements he would not be able to go to England personally to confer with the imperial authorities on the Alaska boundary question, but he would send Sir Louis Davies, a member of his government, to represent the Canadian government.

"Pittsburg Phil" Retires.

New York, Sept. 2.—George Smith, better known as "Pittsburg Phil," famous plunger and prominent turfman, has retired. The formal ceremony was enacted Friday in the shape of an auction sale at the Easton paddocks at Sheephead bay, when the old-timer sold his stable and publicly announced that he had quit the game for good.

Steamer Collision Results Fatally.

Amsterdam, Sept. 2.—In a collision last night between two river steamers on the North Sea canal one of the vessels sank and nine persons, including two women, were drowned.

SHAW MAY NOT BE COMMANDER

Grand Army in Judge Ranssieur.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 2.—There is much more doubt as to who will be the next commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic than there was two weeks ago. Then it was supposed that Col. Albert G. Shaw of New York would get the honor, and that there would be little opposition to him. There has, however, sprung up a rival candidate in the person of Judge Leo Ranssieur of St. Louis, and he is gaining supporters so rapidly that the friends of Col. Shaw will have to exert themselves to the utmost if they want to elect him. There is every prospect that there will be an interesting contest during the days that intervene between now and the election next Tuesday night. Commander Morrison denied that there was any truth in the statement that Pennsylvania was prejudiced against Shaw because of the fact that the delegates from his state voted against Philadelphia for the encampment. Pennsylvania has sixty votes, and they will be cast solidly, but for whom cannot be said, as they are not pledged.
